A person is reckless with respect to circumstances when, with heedless indifference to the consequences, he/she perversely disregards a known risk that such circumstances are likely to exist.

(D) A person acts negligently when, because of a substantial lapse from due care, he/she fails to perceive or avoid a risk that his/her conduct may cause a certain result or may be of a certain nature. A person is negligent with respect to circumstances when, because of a substantial lapse from due care, he/she fails to perceive or avoid a risk that such circumstances may exist.

(E) When the section defining an offense provides that negligence suffices to establish an element thereof, then recklessness, knowledge, or purpose is also sufficient culpability for such element. When recklessness suffices to establish an element of an offense, then knowledge or purpose is also sufficient culpability for such element. When knowledge suffices to establish an element of an offense, then purpose is also sufficient culpability for such element. (R.C. § 2901.22) ('70 Code, § 606.02)

(D) Any offense not specifically classified is a minor misdemeanor if the only penalty which may be imposed is a fine not exceeding $150.00. (R.C. § 2901.02) ('70 Code, § 606.03)(Ord. 2010-108, passed 11-22-2010)

(B) An offense is defined when one or more sections of this General Offenses Code state a positive prohibition or enjoin a specific duty, and provide a penalty for violation of such prohibition or failure to meet such duty.

(C) This section does not affect the power of a court to punish for contempt or to employ any sanction authorized by law to enforce an order, civil judgment or decree. (R.C. § 2901.03) ('70 Code, § 606.04)

(2) For a minor misdemeanor, six months.

(B) If the period of limitation provided in division (A) of this section has expired, prosecution shall be commenced for an offense of which an element is fraud or breach of a fiduciary duty, within one year after discovery of the offense either by an aggrieved person or by his/her legal representative who is not himself or herself a party to the offense.

In the case of an offense of which an element is a continuing course of conduct, the period of limitation does not begin to run until such course of conduct or the accused's accountability for it terminates, whichever occurs first.

(E) A prosecution is commenced on the date an indictment is returned or an information filed, or on the date a lawful arrest without a warrant is made, or on the date a warrant, summons, citation, or other process is issued, whichever occurs first. A prosecution is not commenced by the return of an indictment or the filing of an information unless reasonable diligence is exercised to issue and execute process on the same. A prosecution is not commenced upon issuance of a warrant, summons, citation or other process, unless reasonable diligence is exercised to execute the same.

(F) The period of limitation shall not run during any time when the corpus delicti remains undiscovered.

(B) When the section defining an offense does not specify any degree of culpability and plainly indicates a purpose to impose strict criminal liability for the conduct described in such section, then culpability is not required for a person to be guilty of the offense. When the section neither specifies culpability nor plainly indicates a purpose to impose strict liability, recklessness is sufficient culpability to commit the offense.

(C) As used in this section:

(2) A purpose to impose organizational liability plainly appears in the section defining the offense and the offense is committed by an officer, agent or employee of the organization acting in its behalf and within the scope of his/her office or employment, except that if the section defining the offense designates the officers, agents or employees for whose conduct the organization is accountable or the circumstances under which it is accountable, such provisions shall apply.

This defense is not available if it plainly appears inconsistent with the purpose of the section defining the offense.

(D) As used in this section, ORGANIZATION means a corporation for profit or not for profit, partnership, limited partnership, joint venture, unincorporated association, estate, trust or other commercial or legal entity. ORGANIZATION does not include an entity organized as or by a governmental agency for the execution of a governmental program. Each law enforcement agency that has custody of any property that is subject to this section shall adopt a written internal control policy that addresses the keeping of detailed records as to the amount of property taken in by the agency, that addresses the agency's disposition of the property under this section, that provides for the keeping of detailed records of the disposition of the property, and that provides for the keeping of detailed financial records of the amount and disposition of any proceeds of a sale of the property under division (D)(8) of this section and of the general types of expenditures made out of the proceeds retained by the agency and the specific amount expended on each general type of expenditure. The policy shall not provide for or permit the identification of any specific expenditure that is made in an ongoing investigation. A written internal control policy adopted under this division is a public record open for inspection under R.C. § 149.43.

(2) (a) Every law enforcement agency that has any such lost, abandoned, stolen, seized or forfeited property in its custody shall comply with its internal control policy adopted under this division relative to the property. Each agency that has any such property in its custody, except for property to be disposed of under division (D)(4) of this section, shall maintain an accurate record, in accordance with its internal control policy, of each item of the property. The record shall include the date on which each item of property came into the agency's custody, the manner in which it was disposed of, the date of its disposition, the name of the person who received the property if it was not destroyed, and all other information required by the agency's internal control policy; however, the record shall not identify or enable the identification of the individual officer who seized any item of property. The record of any property that no longer is needed as evidence, and all other financial records of the amount and disposition of any proceeds of a sale under division (D)(8) of this section and of the general types of expenditures made out of the proceeds retained by the agency and the specific amount of each general type of expenditure, shall be open to public inspection during the agency's regular business hours.

Each such report so received by the Attorney General is a public record open for inspection under R.C. § 149.43. (b) Each law enforcement agency that receives in any calendar year any proceeds of a sale under division (D)(8) of this section shall prepare a report covering the calendar year that cumulates all of the information contained in all of the public financial records kept by the agency pursuant to division (D)(2)(a) of this section for that calendar year, and shall send a copy of the cumulative report, no later than the first day of March in the calendar year following the calendar year covered by the report, to the Attorney General. Each such report so received by the Attorney General is a public record open for inspection under R.C. § 149.43. The Attorney General shall make copies of each such report so received, and, no later than the 15th day of April in the calendar year in which the reports were received, shall send a copy of each such report to the Office of the President of the Senate and the Office of the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

(B) A law enforcement agency that has property in its possession that is required to be disposed of pursuant to this section shall make a reasonable effort to locate the persons entitled to possession of the property in its custody, to notify them of when and where it may be claimed and to return the property to them at the earliest possible time. In the absence of evidence identifying persons entitled to custody, it is sufficient notice to advertise in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, briefly describing the nature of the property in custody, and inviting persons to view and establish their right to it.

(C) A person loses any right he/she may have to the possession of property if either of the following apply:

(1) The property was the subject, or was used in a conspiracy or attempt to commit, or in the commission, of an offense other than a traffic offense, and such person is a conspirator, accomplice or offender with respect to the offense;

(2) When a court determines that the property should be forfeited because, in light of the nature of the property or the circumstances of such person, it is unlawful for the person to acquire or possess the property.

(D) Unclaimed or forfeited property in the custody of a law enforcement agency other than contraband that is subject to the provisions of Ohio R.C. 2933.43 and other than property that has been lawfully seized in relation to a violation of R.C. § 2923.42, shall be disposed of on application to and order of any court of record that has territorial jurisdiction over the municipality as follows:

Firearms suitable for sporting use, or as museum pieces or collectors' items, may be sold at public auction pursuant to division (D)(8) of this section. Other firearms and dangerous ordnance shall be destroyed by the agency or shall be sent to the Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation for destruction by the Bureau.

(4) Beer, intoxicating liquor or alcohol seized from a person who is not the holder of a permit issued under R.C. Chapters 4301 and 4303, or is an offender, and forfeited to the State under R.C. §§ 4301.45 or 4301.53 shall be sold by the Department of Liquor Control, if the Department determines that the beer, intoxicating liquor or alcohol is fit for sale. If any tax imposed under R.C. Title XLIII has not been paid in relation to the beer, intoxicating liquor or alcohol, the proceeds of the sale shall first be used to pay the tax. All other money collected under division (D)(4) of this section shall be paid into the State Treasury. Any such beer, intoxicating liquor or alcohol that the Department determines to be unfit for sale shall be destroyed.

(5) Money received by an inmate of a correctional institution from an unauthorized source or in an unauthorized manner shall be returned to the sender, if known, or deposited in the inmates' industrial and entertainment fund if the sender is not known.

(6) Vehicle and vehicle parts forfeited under R.C. §§ 4549.61 to 4549.63 may be given to a law enforcement agency for use in the performance of its duties. Such parts may be incorporated into any other official vehicle. Parts that do not bear vehicle identification numbers or derivatives thereof may be sold or disposed of as provided by rules of the Director of Highway Safety. (A) (1) In any criminal prosecution for a violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, a laboratory report from the State Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation, a laboratory operated by another law enforcement agency or a laboratory established by or under the authority of an institution of higher education that has its main campus in this state and that is accredited by the Association of American Universities or the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, primarily for the purpose of providing scientific services to law enforcement agencies and signed by the person performing the analysis, stating that the substance which is the basis of the alleged offense has been weighed and analyzed and stating the findings as to the content, weight and identity of the substance and that it contains any amount of a controlled substance and the number and description of unit dosages, is prima-facie evidence of the content, identity and weight or the existence and number of unit dosages of the substance.

(2) Attached to that report shall be a copy of a notarized statement by the signer of the report giving the name of the signer and stating that he/she is an employee of the laboratory issuing the report and that performing the analysis is a part of his/her regular duties, and giving an outline of his/her education, training and experience for performing an analysis of materials included under this section. Such portion shall be a representative sample of the entire substance that is the basis of the alleged violation and shall be of sufficient size, in the opinion of the court, to permit the accused's analyst to make a thorough scientific analysis concerning the identity of the substance. The prosecuting attorney shall provide the accused's analyst with the sample portion at least 14 days prior to trial, unless the trial is to be held in a court not of record or unless the accused person is charged with a minor misdemeanor, in which case the prosecuting attorney shall provide the accused's analyst with the sample portion at least three days prior to trial. If the prosecuting attorney determines that such a sample portion cannot be preserved and given to the accused's analyst, the prosecuting attorney shall so inform the accused person, or his/her attorney. In such a circumstance, the accused person is entitled, upon written request made to the prosecuting attorney, to have his/her privately employed or court appointed analyst present at an analysis of the substance that is the basis of the alleged violation, and, upon further written request, to receive copies of all recorded scientific data that result from the analysis and that can be used by an analyst in arriving at conclusions, findings, or opinions concerning the identity of the substance subject to the analysis.

(D) "Cyclically varying noise" means any sound which varies in sound level such that the same level is obtained repetitively at reasonably uniform intervals of time.

(E) "Decibel" means a unit for measuring the volume of sound, equal to twenty (20) times the logarithm to the base ten (10) of the ratio of the pressure of the sound measured to the reference pressure, which is twenty (20) micropascals (twenty (20) micronewtons per square meter).

(F) "Demolition" means any dismantling or intentional destruction or removal of structures, utilities, public or private right-of-way surfaces, or similar property.

(G) "Gross vehicle weight rating" means the value specified by the manufacturer as the recommended maximum loaded weight of a single motor vehicle. In cases where trailers and tractors are separable, the gross combination weight rating (GCWR), which is the value specified by the manufacturer as the maximum loaded weight of the combination vehicle, shall be used.

(H) "Emergency" means any occurrence or set of circumstances involving actual or imminent physical trauma or property damage or loss which demands immediate action.

(I) "Emergency work" means any work performed for the purpose of preventing or alleviating the physical trauma or property damage threatened or caused by an emergency.

(2) Using, operating or permitting for any noncommercial purpose any loudspeaker, public address system, mobile sound vehicle or similar device between the hours of 6:00 a.m. and 2:00 a., so long as such sound therefrom does not create a unreasonably loud noise disturbance across a residential real property boundary.

(G) Places of Public Entertainment. Operating, playing or permitting the operation or playing of any radio, television, phonograph, drum, musical instrument, sound amplifier, or similar device' which produces, reproduces, or amplifies sound in any indoors, with doors and windows in a closed position, place of public entertainment at a sound level less than ninety-five (95) dBA as read with a slow response on a sound level meter at any point which is normally occupied by a customer, unless a conspicuous and legible sign is located inside such place near each public entrance, stating "WARNING: SOUND LEVELS WITHIN MAY CAUSE PERMANENT HEARING IMPAIRMENT".

(B) The sound level limits set forth in Table I shall be exceeded when any one or more of the following occur:

(1) The noise at any one point in time exceeds any of the established zone limits in Table I by a measured sound level of fifteen (15) dBA;

(2) The noise exceeds any of the established zone limits in Table I by a measured sound level of ten (10) dBA for a cumulative total of one minute or more out of any ten (10) minute period; or

(3) The noise exceeds any of the established zone limits in Table I by a measured sound level of three (3) dBA continually for a period of five (5) minutes, or a total of five (5) minutes out of any ten (10) minute period.

(C) For the purposes of this section, noise shall be measured at or beyond the property line of the property on which the noise source is located and shall be at least 50 feet from a sound source and shall be measured while stationary and at idle at a height of at least four feet above the immediate surrounding ground surface, in addition, shall be made at least ten (10) feet from any large reflecting surfaces.

(D) For any source which emits a pure tone, cyclically varying sound, or repetitive impulsive sound, the limits set forth in Table I shall be reduced by five (5) dBA.

(E) Any noise which occurs on property which, according to the Marion City Zoning Code, is being used in a legally nonconforming manner, and which noise relates to such use, shall be judged as if the property bore a zoning designation under which the use would be conforming.

(F) If the zoning designation of the property on which the source of the noise is located differs from the zoning designation of the property on which the noise is measured, the maximum permissible noise level of the more restrictive zoning designation shall apply.

(G) The provisions of this section shall not apply to the following:

- (1) Activities covered by Section 755.03(b), (c) and (d);

(A) No person shall operate, cause to be operated, or permit a public or private motor vehicles, motorcycle, or motorized bicycle on a public right of way at any time in such a manner as to exceed the sound level for such motor vehicle, motorcycle, or motorized bicycle set forth in Table II.

TABLE II

Motorized Vehicle, Motorcycle and Motorized Bicycle Sound Limits

Vehicle Class	Maximum number of Decibels Permitted
Motor vehicles with a manufacturer's gross vehicle weight rating(GVWR) or gross combination weight rating (GCWR) of 10,000 pounds or more, or any combination of vehicles towed by such motor vehicle	86
Any other motor vehicle, motorcycle, motorized bicycle, or any combination of vehicles towed by any motor vehicle	80

(B) For the purposes of this section, noise shall be measured at a distance of at least fifty (50) feet from the centerline of motor vehicles, and shall be measured at a height of at least four (4) feet above the immediate surrounding ground surface, and shall be made at least ten (10) feet from any large reflecting surfaces.

(C) The provisions of this shall not apply to motor vehicles towing vehicles requiring service because of mechanical failure or accident.

§ 634.06 INSPECTIONS BY LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS.

Any city law enforcement officer, in addition to any other authority vested in him, has the power, upon presentation of proper credentials, to enter and inspect any dwelling, multi-family dwelling, building, structure or premises within the City as may be necessary to enforce the provisions of this chapter, provided permission is obtained from the occupant or, in the case of unoccupied property, from the owner or his/her agent. If such permission is refused, or is otherwise unobtainable, a search warrant must be obtained upon the showing of probable cause to believe that a violation of this chapter may exist, before such entry or inspection is made.

§ 634.07 SPECIAL VARIANCES.

(A) The Safety/Service Director or his/her designated representative, shall have the authority, consistent with this section, to grant special variances.

(B) Any person seeking a special variance pursuant to this section shall file an application with the Safety/Service Director, or his/her designated representative. The application shall contain information which demonstrates that bringing the source of sound or activity for which the special variance is sought into compliance with this chapter would constitute an unreasonable hardship on the applicant, on the community, or on other persons. Notice of an application for a special variance shall be given by the Safety/Service Director or his/her representative to persons who frequent the area of the sound or activity and who may be adversely affected by the granting of the variance. Any individual who claims to be adversely affected by allowance of the special variance may file a statement with the Safety/Service or his/her representative containing any information to support his claim.

(C) In determining whether to grant or deny the application, the Safety/Service Director or his/her designated representative shall balance the hardship to the applicant, the community and other persons of not granting the special variance against the adverse impact on the health, safety and welfare of persons affected, the adverse impact on property affected, and any other adverse impact of granting the special variance. Applicants for special variances may be required to submit any information the Safety/Service Director or his/her representative may reasonably require. In granting or denying an application, the Safety/Service Director or his/her representative shall place on public file a copy of the decision and the reasons for denying or granting the special variance.

(D) Special variances shall be granted by notice to the applicant containing all necessary conditions, including a time limit on the permitted activity. The special variance shall not become effective until all conditions are agreed to by the applicant. Noncompliance with any conditions of the special variances shall terminate it and subject the person holding it to those provisions of this chapter regulating the source of sound or activity for which the special variance was granted.

(E) Application for extension of time limits specified in special variances or for modification of other substantial conditions shall be treated like applications for initial special variances.

(F) The Safety/Service Director or his/her designated representative may issue guidelines approved by Council defining the procedures to be followed in applying for a special variance and the criteria to be considered in deciding whether to grant a special variance.

(G) A person filing an application for special variance pursuant to this section shall comply with this code until such time as the application is acted upon by the Safety/Service Director or his/her designated representative.

§ 634.08 ABATEMENT ORDERS.

A complaint, a copy of which has been attached to this motion, has been filed in this court charging the named defendant with at least one of the following violations of § 636.19 or R.C. § 2919.25 that constitutes domestic violence or a municipal ordinance substantially similar to that section, knowingly causing or attempting to cause physical harm to a family or household member, or recklessly causing serious physical harm to a family or household member, or, by threat of force, knowingly causing a family or household member to believe that he/she would cause imminent physical harm to that family or household member; or charging the named defendant with felonious assault, aggravated assault, or assault that involved a family or household member in violation of R.C. §§ 2903.11 2903.12, or 2903.13 and § 636.02 of the General Offenses Code charging the named defendant with menacing by stalking or aggravated trespass that involves a family household member in violation of R.C. §§ 2903.211 of 2911.211, or charging the named defendant with a violation of a municipal ordinance substantially similar to R.C. §§ 2903.13, 2903.211 or 2911.211 that involves a family or household member.

I understand that I must appear before the court, at a time set by the court within 24 hours of the filing of this motion, for a hearing on the motion, or that, if I am unable to appear because of hospitalization or a medical condition resulting from the offense alleged in the complaint, a person who can provide information about my need for a temporary protection order must appear before the court in lieu of my appearing in court. I understand that any temporary protection order granted pursuant to this motion is a pretrial condition of release and is effective only until the disposition of the criminal proceeding arising out of the attached complaint, or the issuance of a civil protection order, or the approval of a consent agreement, arising out of the same activities as those that were the basis of the complaint, under R.C. § 3113.31.

Signature of complainant

(3) As soon as possible after the filing of a motion requesting the issuance of a temporary protection order, but not later than 24 hours after the filing of the motion, the court shall conduct a hearing to determine whether to issue the order. The person who requested the order shall appear before the court and provide the court with the information that it requests concerning the basis of the motion. If the person who requested the order is unable to appear and if the court finds that the failure to appear is because of the person's hospitalization or medical condition resulting from the offense alleged in the complaint, another person who is able to provide the court with the information it requests may appear in lieu of the person who requested the order. If the court finds that the safety and protection of the complainant or other family or household member of the alleged offender may be impaired by the continued presence of the alleged offender, the court may issue a temporary protection order, as a pretrial condition of release, that contains terms designed to ensure the safety and protection of the complainant or family or household member, including a requirement that the alleged offender refrain from entering the residence, school, business or place of employment of the complainant or family or household member.

(b) If the court issues a temporary protection order under this section as an ex parte order, it shall conduct, as soon as possible after the issuance of the order, a hearing in the presence of the alleged offender not later than the next day on which the court is scheduled to conduct business after the day on which the alleged offender was arrested or at the time of the appearance of the alleged offender pursuant to summons to determine whether the order should remain in effect, be modified or be revoked. (c) Shall not be construed as a finding that the alleged offender committed the alleged offense, and shall not be introduced as evidence of the commission of the offense at the trial of the alleged offender on the complaint upon which the order is based.

(6) A person who meets the criteria for bail under Criminal Rule 46 and who, if required to do so pursuant to that Rule, executes or posts bond or deposits cash or securities as bail, shall not be held in custody pending a hearing before the court on a motion requesting a temporary protection order.

(7) (a) A copy of any temporary protection order that is issued under this section shall be issued by the court to the complainant, to the defendant and to all law enforcement agencies that have jurisdiction to enforce the order. The court shall direct that a copy of the order be delivered to the defendant on the same day that the order is entered.

With respect to each order delivered, each agency shall note on the index, the date and time of the receipt of the order by the agency.

(d) Any officer of a law enforcement agency shall enforce a temporary protection order issued by any court in this state in accordance with the provisions of the order, including removing the defendant from the premises regardless of whether the order is registered in the county in which the officer's agency has jurisdiction as authorized by division (B)(7)(c) of this section.

(8) Upon a violation of a temporary protection order, the court may issue another temporary protection order as a pretrial condition of release, that modifies the terms of the order that was violated.

(9) (a) As used in this division (9), DEFENDANT means a person who is alleged in a complaint to have committed a violation of the type described in division (A) of this section.

(b) If a complaint is filed that alleges that a person committed a violation of the type described in division (A) of this section, the order under this section that requires the member or the defendant to do or refrain from doing an act that the court may require the temporary protection order unless both of the following apply:

1. The defendant has filed a separate complaint that alleges that the complainant or other family or household member in question who would be required under the order to do or refrain from doing the act committed a violation of the type described in division (A) of this section.

2. The court determines that both the complainant or other family or household member in question who would be required under the order to do or refrain from doing the act and the defendant acted primarily as aggressors, that neither that complainant or other family or household member in question who would be required under the order to do or refrain from doing the act nor the defendant acted primarily in self-defense, and, in accordance with the standards and criteria of this section as applied in relation to the separate complaint filed by the defendant, that it should issue the order to require the complainant or other family or household member in question to do or refrain from doing the act.

(11) As used in this section VICTIM ADVOCATE means a person who provides support and assistance for a victim of an offense during court proceedings. (R.C. § 2919.26) ('70 Code, § 636.20) Penalty, see § 698.02

(2) The negligence or consent of the plaintiff or any assumption of the risk by the plaintiff is not a defense to an action brought pursuant to this section. In an action against a school, university, college or other educational institution, it is an affirmative defense that the school, university, college or other institution was actively enforcing a policy against hazing at the time the cause of action arose. (R.C. § 2307.44)

§ 642.23 VALUATION OF PROPERTY.

(A) Where more than one item of property or services is involved in a theft offense, the value of the property or services involved for the purpose of determining the value is the aggregate value of all property or services involved in the offense.

(B) When a series of offenses under § 642.02 is committed by the offender in his/her same employment, capacity or relationship to another, all such offenses shall be tried as a single offense, and the value of the property or services involved for the purpose of determining the value is the aggregate value of all property and services involved in all offenses in the series. In prosecuting a single offense under this subsection, it is not necessary to separately allege and prove each offense in the series. It is sufficient to allege and prove that the offender, within a given span of time committed one or more theft offenses in his/her same employment, capacity or relationship to another.

(C) The following criteria shall be used in determining the value of property or services involved in a theft offense:

(1) The value of an heirloom, memento, collector's item, antique, museum piece, manuscript, document, record or other thing which has intrinsic worth to its owner and which is either irreplaceable or is replaceable only on the expenditure of substantial time, effort or money, is the amount which would compensate the owner for its loss.

(3) The value of any property, real or personal, not covered under divisions (C)(1) or (2) of this section, and the value of services, is the fair market value of such property or services. As used in this section, FAIR MARKET VALUE is the money consideration which a buyer would give and a seller would accept for property or services, assuming that the buyer is willing to buy and the seller is willing to sell, that both are fully informed as to all facts material to the transaction, and that neither is under any compulsion to act.

(D) Without limitation on the evidence that may be used to establish the value of property or services involved in a theft offense:

(1) When the property involved is personal property held for sale at wholesale or retail, the price at which such property was held for sale is prima-facie evidence of its value.

(2) When the property involved is a security or commodity traded on an exchange, the closing price or, if there is no closing price, the asked price, given in the latest market quotation prior to the offense, is prima-facie evidence of the value of such security or commodity.

(3) When the property involved is livestock, poultry or raw agricultural products for which a local market price is available, the latest local market price prior to the offense is prima-facie evidence of the value of such livestock, poultry or products.

(4) When the property involved is a negotiable instrument, the face value is prima-facie evidence of the value of such instrument.

(5) When the property involved is a warehouse receipt, bill of lading, pawn ticket, claim check or other instrument entitling the holder or bearer to receive property, the face value or, if there is no face value, the value of the property covered by the instrument less any payment necessary to receive the property, is prima-facie evidence of the value of the instrument.

(6) When the property involved is a ticket of admission, ticket for transportation, coupon, token or other instrument entitling the holder or bearer to receive property or services, the face value or, if there is no face value, the value of the property or services which may be received thereby, is prima-facie evidence of the value of such instrument.

(7) When the services involved are gas, electricity, water, telephone, transportation, shipping or other services for which the rate is established by law, the duly established rate is prima-facie evidence of the value of such services.

(8) When the services involved are services for which the rate is not established by law, and the offender has been notified prior to the offense of the rate for such services, either in writing, or orally, or by posting in a manner reasonably calculated to come to the attention of potential offenders, the rate contained in such notice is prima-facie evidence of the value of such services. § 642.24 TAMPERING WITH AND THEFT OF UTILITIES.

(A) In a prosecution for a theft offense, as defined in R.C. § 2913.01, that involves alleged tampering with a gas, electric, steam, or water meter, conduit, or attachment of a utility that has been disconnected by the utility, proof that a meter, conduit or attachment of a utility has been tampered with is prima-facie evidence that the person who is obligated to pay for the service rendered through the meter, conduit or attachment, and who is in possession or control of the meter, conduit or attachment at the time the tampering occurred, has caused the tampering with intent to commit a theft offense.

(B) In a prosecution for a theft offense, as defined in R.C. § 2913.01, that involves alleged tampering with a gas, electric, steam, or water meter, conduit, or attachment of a utility that has been disconnected by the utility, proof that a meter, conduit or attachment disconnected by a utility has been reconnected without the consent of the utility is prima-facie evidence that the person in possession or control of the meter, conduit or attachment at the time of the reconnection has reconnected the meter, conduit or attachment with intent to commit a theft offense.

(C) As used in this section:

UTILITY means any electric light company, gas company, natural gas company, pipe-line company, waterworks company or heating or cooling company, as defined in R.C. § 4905.03(A)(4), (5), (6), (7), (8) or (9), its lessees, trustees or receivers, or any similar utility owned or operated by a political subdivision.

TAMPER means to interfere with, damage or bypass a utility meter, conduit or attachment with the intent to impede the correct registration of a meter or the proper functions of a conduit or attachment so as to reduce the amount of utility service that is registered on such meter. (R.C. § 4933.18)

(F) Each utility company defined in R.C. § 4905.03(A)(4) – (9) or its lessees, trustees, or receivers, and each similar utility operated by a political subdivision shall notify its customers, on an annual basis, that tampering with or bypassing a meter constitutes a theft offense that could result in the imposition of criminal sanctions. (A) There is hereby created a Fair Housing Board to consist of seven members who are qualified electors of the municipality and who shall not hold any public office at the municipal, county, state or federal level at any time while a member of the Board, nor be an employee of any government institution. The Board membership shall consist of one member from each ward and one member at large and there shall be not more than one member from the real estate industry and not more than one member from the lending institution industry.

(B) The Board members shall be appointed by the Mayor and confirmed by Council. Of the members first appointed, two shall hold office for terms of one year, two for terms of two years and three for terms of three years and their successors shall be appointed for terms of three years. The Mayor shall fill all vacancies by appointment for any unexpired term. A Board member whose term has expired shall be eligible for reappointment to the Board.

(C) The Executive Secretary of the Board shall be appointed by the Mayor and shall be an employee of the municipality.

(D) The Mayor may recommend to Council the removal of any member of the Board for neglect of duty or malfeasance in office. Council may remove a member of the Board from office by the vote of two-thirds of Council only after having first given to such member a copy of the charges against him or her and an opportunity to be publicly heard in person or by counsel in his or her own defense. Any such removal shall be final.

(E) Five members of the Board shall constitute a quorum for the purpose of conducting the business thereof. A vacancy on the Board shall not impair the right of the other members to exercise all the powers of the Board.

(F) Each member of the Board shall serve without salary.

(G) The Board is charged with the following duties to implement the stated policy of this chapter:

(1) To investigate all complaints of unlawful housing practices which are filed with it;

(2) To endeavor, by conciliation, to resolve such complaints;

§ 646.07 HEARING PROCEDURES.

(A) Any person subjected to an unlawful housing practice may file, within sixty days of the alleged violation, with the Fair Housing Board, a complaint in writing, sworn to or affirmed, which shall state the name and address of the person alleged to have committed the violation complained of, the particulars thereof and such other information as may be required by the Board.

(B) Upon the filing of a complaint, the Executive Secretary of the Board shall make such investigation as he or she deems appropriate to ascertain facts and issues. If the Executive Secretary determines that there are reasonable grounds to believe a violation has occurred, he or she shall attempt to conciliate the matter by methods of initial conference and persuasion with all interested parties and such representatives as the parties may choose to assist them. Conciliation conferences shall be informal and nothing said or done during such initial conferences shall be made public by the Board or any member of the Board or its staff, unless the parties agree thereto in writing.

(C) The terms of conciliation agreed to by the parties shall be reduced to writing and incorporated into a consent agreement to be signed by the parties, which agreement is for conciliation purposes only and does not constitute an admission by any party that the law has been violated. Consent agreements shall be signed on behalf of the Board by its Chairman.

(D) The Board is authorized to seek the cooperation and aid of the Marion Board of Realtors, Inc., the Ohio Real Estate Commission and the Ohio Civil Rights Commission in any investigation under this chapter.

(E) If the Executive Secretary determines that the complaint lacks reasonable grounds upon which to base a violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, he or she shall so inform the Board and the Board may, at its discretion, dismiss such complaint or order such further investigation as may be necessary, provided that the Board shall not dismiss such complaint without first affording the complainant an opportunity to appear before the Board.

(F) If the Executive Secretary, with respect to a matter which involves a violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, fails to conciliate a complaint after the parties have in good faith attempted such conciliation, fails to effect an informal conciliation agreement or a formal consent agreement or determines that a complaint is not susceptible of conciliation, he or she shall notify the Board immediately and the Board shall thereafter schedule a public hearing to determine whether or not a violation of any of the provisions of this chapter has been committed. The Board shall serve upon the respondent a statement of charges and a summons and shall serve upon all interested parties a notice of the time and place of hearing. The respondent or his or her authorized counsel may file such statements with the Board prior to the hearing date as he or she deems necessary in support of his or her position. The hearing shall be open to the public. The hearing shall be held not less than 15 days after service of the statement of charges and the summons. The summons so issued must be signed by a majority of the members of the Board and the issuance of such summons shall require the attendance of named persons and the production of relevant documents and records. The failure to comply with a summons shall constitute a violation of this chapter. The interested parties may, at their option, appear before the Board in person or by a duly authorized representative and may have the assistance of an attorney. The parties may present testimony and evidence and the right to cross examine witnesses shall be preserved. All testimony and evidence shall be given under oath or by affirmation. The Executive Secretary shall keep a full record of the hearing, which record shall be public and open to inspection by any person. Upon the request of any principal party to the proceeding, the Board shall furnish such party a copy of the hearing record, if any, at such cost as the Board deems appropriate.

(G) If, at the conclusion of the hearing, the Board determines, upon a preponderance of the evidence, of the record, that the person complained against has violated any of the provisions of this chapter, the Board shall, after consultation with the Law Director in executive session, state its findings and cause the Law Director to prepare and issue an order under Board directive requiring the person complained against to cease and desist from such unlawful conduct and to take such affirmative action as will effectuate the purposes of this chapter, with notice that if the Board determines that the person complained against has not, after 15 calendar days following service of the Board's order, complied with the order, the Board shall recertify the matter to the Law Director for enforcement. Nothing herein shall prohibit the respondent from appealing to the Common Pleas Court under R.C. § 2506.01 after a final determination by the Board.

(H) Upon recertification to the Law Director for enforcement, he or she shall seek compliance by appropriate civil action brought in the name of the Board before a court of competent jurisdiction. In any such proceeding, where the court determines that there has been a violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, the court shall award compensatory damages and, where appropriate, punitive damages, along with attorney fees. The court may also order such other relief as it deems necessary or appropriate.

(I) If, at the conclusion of the hearing, the Board determines upon a preponderance of the evidence of the record, that the person complained against has not violated any of the provisions of this chapter, the Board shall state and publish its findings and issue its order dismissing the complaint. § 646.08 CONFLICT OF LAWS.

This chapter shall be complied with except where existing and future state or federal law supersedes. ('70 Code § 646.08) (Ord. 1978-91, passed 8-7-78)

§ 698.03 IMPOSING SENTENCE FOR MISDEMEANOR.

(A) In determining whether to impose imprisonment or a fine, or both, for misdemeanor, and in determining the term of imprisonment and the amount and method of payment of a fine for a misdemeanor, the court shall consider the risk that the offender will commit another offense and the need for protecting the public from the risk, the nature and circumstances of the offense, the history, character and condition of the offender and his/her need for correctional or rehabilitative treatment, any statement made by the victim under R.C. §§ 2930.12 through 2930.17, if the offense is a misdemeanor specified in R.C. § 2930.01(A) and the ability and resources of the offender and the nature of the burden that payment of a fine will impose on him/her.

(2) Regardless of whether or not the offender knew the age of the victim, the victim of the offense was 65 years of age or older, permanently and totally disabled, or less than 18 years of age at the time of the commission of the offense.

(C) The criteria listed in R.C. § 2929.12 that mitigate the seriousness of the offense and that indicate that the offender is unlikely to commit future crimes, do not control the court's discretion, but shall be considered against imposing imprisonment for a misdemeanor.

(E) The court shall not impose a fine in addition to imprisonment for a misdemeanor, unless a fine is specially adapted to deterrence of the offense or the correction of the offender, or the offense has proximately resulted in physical harm to the person or property of another, or the offense was committed for hire or for purpose of gain.

(F) The court shall not impose a fine or fines which, in the aggregate and to the extent not suspended by the court, exceeds the amount which the offender is or will be able to pay by the method and within the time allowed without undue hardship to himself/herself or his/her dependents, or will prevent him/her from making restitution or reparation to the victim of his/her offense.

(G) At the time of sentencing or as soon as possible after sentencing, the court shall notify the victim of the offense of his/her right to file an application for an award of reparations pursuant to R.C. §§ 2743.51 through 2743.72.
