MEET DELORES “DEE” DOYLE

By Anne Marie Bailey

She was born in Marion OH in January of 1930; daughter of Mary and Clovis Mann. School was at Mark St. School, Vernon Jr High, and she graduated from Harding High in 1948.

But these interesting stats do not even come close to revealing what a “Fire Cracker” this little lady is. She could be described as a dynamo, but her calm, soft-spoken presence is much more than that. “I met my husband, Lowell C. Doyle during my senior year at Harding, and we were married January 1, 1949. We shared 61 years, 10 months of married life before cancer took him.” she said at the beginning of the interview. There are two children: Lowell Stephen Doyle, who is retired from Whirlpool and enjoys playing pool at the Center; and daughter Sally Doyle Wagner is an OB-GYN doctor at two hospitals on the west coast (Portland, OR and Vancouver WA). The three grand children are Zane (wife Ari), Elizabeth, and Ian. “I have four siblings: Jerald Mann, Odessa Myers, June Muhr, and Rev. Ronald Mann,” she spoke with pride.

Dee is a member of the First Presbyterian Church and a Deacon. She taught Sunday school while her children were growing up, and still has a few commitments there, including making Prayer Shawls for people who are ill.

Added to this list of motherhood obligations were Cub Scout den mother, Brownie helper. One previous volunteer commitment was the Y Gradale Service Club when the YMCA used to be in their old building. Now, her concentration is as a member of the Marion Senior Center Board, Corresponding Secretary. Current duties include sending “Get Well” cards to those members who are ill and flowers and sympathy cards to families of deceased member, greeter for the Senior Center on the second and fourth Thursdays. And at this time, she is celebrating 11 years as a Red Hat Victorian Ladies member... a truly enthusiastic guarantee of colorful joy!

“My health is good, and I partly credit it to many years of line dancing with Paul White and Royce Farson.” I have enjoyed hand and foot bridge with six special friends: Leta Lawhead, June Bender, Jan Black, and Mary Fox. Sadness wells in her heart at the recent passing of Mary Jane Ralston, whom they lost in March. Adding to this mind-bending schedule of activities, with her participation with Judy Walker at Dime A Dog Night in Columbus, she puts one to shame in the energy department.

If this isn't enough on her plate, she also enjoys reading, crocheting, water color painting, serving at events, and working in her yard.

I have a new friend now she relates to me with smiling eye: my calico kitten, Callie. She is good company and fun to watch. And I think we would all agree, it keeps her young at heart.

I can't say enough good words about the Senior Center; there is always something to do there. I enjoy meeting new friends, the dinners, playing cards, going on field trips and much more. Her field trips of last year included trips to New York and New Orleans, places she had never been before. Attending the Ark Encounter was a highlight for her as well.

Her mantra is: “For food, fun and fellowship, COME TO THE CENTER!”

The Scoop on 'Curves'

Members have been hearing through the grapevine that the Center is getting new exercise equipment formerly used at Curves. With our Board members approval, Curves owner Cindi Bentley donated the equipment to the Center with the understanding that we currently did not have space available, but would incorporate it as soon as we could rearrange the space to do so. It is in storage at this time. To help manage expectations, we'd like to clarify that we are currently moving forward with plans to make space to incorporate the equipment, but there is no set timetable when that will happen.
